

Holiday Gift Guide

Great Ideas for History Lovers

People of the Tantramar by Charlie Scobie

Biographical sketches of 47 women and men who have lived in the Tantramar area over the centuries.

$25 HARDCOVER

Indifference and Remissness English Language Education on the Isthmus of Chignecto, 1760s-1870s

by Rhianna H. Edwards

The evolution of English-language education, from community schooling to provincial education, including eye-witness accounts of former students.

$28 SPIRAL BOUND

NEW!

The Earliest Houses in New Brunswick's Earliest Town

by Paul Bogaard with Ben Phillips

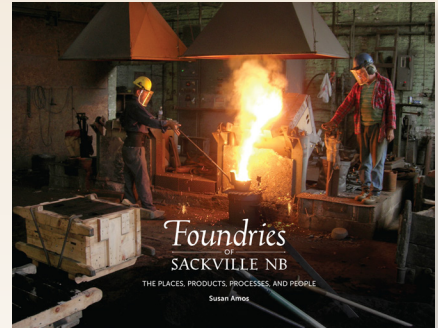

Twenty years of research uncovers the materials and techniques used to build Sackville and area homes in the early years of settlement.

$35 SPIRAL BOUND

Fifty Years a Sailor From 1853-1904

Edited by Sandy Burnett with Al Smith and Paul Bogaard
The Memoir of Capt. Stephen Barnes Atkinson of Sackville. Written for his daughter, it covers 50 years of sailing on dozens of voyages around the world.

$25 SPIRAL BOUND

Foundries of Sackville The Places, Products, Processed, and People

by Susan Amos

Learn about Sackville's three foundries: Fawcett's, Enterprise, and Enterprise Fawcett and the people who worked there.

$25 SPIRAL BOUND

NEW!

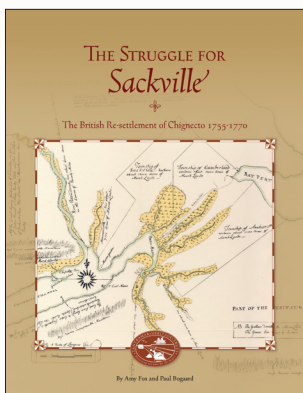

THT Publications are available at Tidewater Books, The Craft Gallery, Boutenhouse Heritage Centre, or by mail.

TantramarHeritage.ca/publications

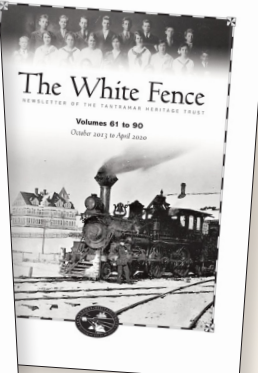

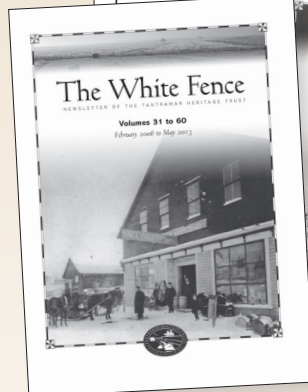

Head of the Bay
*A History of the Maringouin Peninsula,
 Bay of Fundy, Canada*
 by Jeffrey P. Ward

Communities of the Rockport peninsula once played an important role in the industrial and commercial history of Atlantic Canada. Jeff Ward links local stories to the wider sweep of current events, showing how small places can influence the world.
$35 PERFECT BOUND

The Struggle for Sackville
The British Resettlement of Chignecto 1755-1770

by Amy Fox and Paul Bogaard
 An in-depth look at the sequence of events that led up to the founding of Sackville township in 1759, and the subsequent resettlement of the region by families largely from New England in the 1760s.
$25 PERFECT BOUND

The White Fence
Compendiums

Edited by Peter Hicklin

Collect all three compendiums of the Trust's newsletter, The White Fence, from the very beginning in January 1997 to April 2020.

$20 Issues 1-30 SPIRAL BOUND
$22 Issues 31-60 SPIRAL BOUND
$25 Issues 61-90 SPIRAL BOUND

GET THE SET!

Shipbuilding in Westmorland County
New Brunswick 1784-1910

Compiled by Charles A. Armour
 with Al Smith

A compilation of registries for 580 vessels built in Westmorland County, with information on shipbuilding in New Brunswick, the pre-eminent builders, and portraits of the vessels.

$28 PERFECT BOUND

Perfect Stocking Stuffers!

Tales of the Horse
Personal Reflections
 by R. V. McLeod

One of the Trust's all-time best sellers! The vivid personal memoirs of Dick McLeod with colourful descriptions of life on the farm, in the lumber camp, and around town in the mid-twentieth century.

$8 PERFECT BOUND BOOKLET

BEST SELLER

Tastes of the Tantramar

Edited by Betty Dobson

Published for the Yorkshire 2000 celebrations, this delightful collection of recipes features favourites from the Tantramar region.

$8 SPIRAL BOUND

See all available THT publications on our website.
 Drop into Tidewater Books, The Craft Gallery, or the Boultonhouse Heritage Centre to shop in person.